

I don't want more phone calls trying to sell products to me while I'm trying to rest at home.

Before we got the no call list, my wife would answer the phone unless I let the phone ring twice and then called her back immediately.

I don't feel we should have to go back to that. Please don't change the Indiana no call list policy,

Thank you